

Stockton Presbyterian Church

Weekly Newsletter

In week 7 of Sunday School we read the story of the Angel coming to Mary and Joseph to tell them Mary would have a son to whom they would call Jesus. We played nativity bingo, made ornaments, and laid out our classroom nativity scene. This week was week 3 of the advent wreath. the pink candle represents Joy. It is often called the shepherds' candle.

Week 7 December

THIS SUNDAY!

Advent Wreath

- ✦ Candle one (purple) represents hope. It is often called the prophets' candle.
- ✦ Candle two (purple) represents peace. It is often called the angels' candle.
- ✦ Candle three (pink) represents joy. It is often called the shepherds' candle.
- ✦ Candle four (purple) represents love. It is often called the Bethlehem candle.

Please join us this Sunday 12/23 as our class lights the fourth Advent Candle and sings "Away in a Manager" during church service. After our song we will have a birthday party for Jesus!

If you would like to practice "Away in a Manager" Check out this link on YouTube:

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Yz7V_DmTeHs

