Week 12

Happy Birthday Mrs. Karin!

Week 12 of Sunday School was SO much fun! Our lesson this week was about sharing our light and not letting it go out. How do we keep the light going? Sharing it with others and continuing to do the activities that make the light shine bright. We also celebrated Mrs. Karin's birthday with cake and cupcakes. (Thank you again to our friends that supplied the goodies!) For our craft we made paperclip book marks with flames (ribbons). We had the chance to practice our song "This Little Light of Mine" and played musical chairs while learning the song. Hokey pokey Jesus also happened. We played a game like basketball, the paper pieces filling up the basket represented filling empty spaces with faith in God.

Please bring your coat donation to Sunday school this week. Mrs. Karin and Mrs. Ann have a fun announcement to share on Sunday! Stay warm and see you Sunday!!
